A chair with craftsmanship finesse

- Normann Copenhagen presents the Bark Chair, designed by SquadOne

SquadOne has designed the Bark for Normann Copenhagen. It is a simple and sophisticated stackable chair of top quality craftsmanship. The seat appears to almost hover over the sectioned frame. This gives Bark an unanticipated lightness to its appearance.

Bark has a simultaneously soft and graphic design. The chair is full of interesting and slanting angles, giving it a contemporary feel oozing with character. At the same time, the wide, rounded seat and back make the chair inviting and provide optimal stability and comfort.

SquadOne say: "Our aim was to create a chair emphasising craftsmanship. With Bark, we have tried to fully exploit the processes at hand for working with wood. In short, the end result is a functional chair with an unconventional and intelligent design."

The chair is available in a classic, refined black. Bark is perfect for use as a dining chair for the kitchen or in the dining room but is equally suited, for example, in the office.
