Daybed respects the history of Scandinavian design while adding designer Anita Johansen's own stamp of quiet sophistication. Made from classic Nordic materials, it consists of two parts: a simple ash frame and soft upholstered seat. We love Daybed for its purity and calm, a perfect welcome in the hallway or waiting room, or providing additional seating in the living room. Daybed is a striking achievement for Anita, who graduated from The Danish Design School in 2012.

About the Designer

Anita Johansen graduated from The Danish Design School in 2012, swiftly acquiring a reputation as a designer to watch. A process of simplification is at the heart of her work: "Adding to a design is easy, but to reduce the design until you only have the essentials in form and function is so much harder," Anita explains. For an example of that philosophy in practice, take a look at Anita's Daybed for Menu, a product of we love for its purity and calm. Anita has studied at the Aalto University in Helsinki and is drawn to Finnish culture: "I love their natural and simple approach towards design and life in general."
