The Septembre series solves an age-old conundrum of sofa design: while fully-upholstered sofas are comfortable, they often look boxy and inelegant. More structured sofas are aesthetically pleasing yet are seldom made for relaxation. The Septembre Sofa harmonises elements of each style. The refined bent wood arms and backrest give structure, while inviting seating cushions provide maximum comfort. A sofa of beautiful proportions, Septembre's stately yet intimate aesthetic gives it a contemporary feel. The sofa, with its high backrest, looks as good behind as the front – ideal for standing freely in a room, creating a separate, enclosed area.

About the Designer

Theresa Arns focuses on natural, high quality materials, designing functional furniture with a sense of poetry. Born in Germany, she graduated in 2013 from The Royal Danish Academy of Arts. As a student in Copenhagen she fell in love with the city and Danish furniture design: 'My plan was to go to Berlin after my studies, but I find Copenhagen very inspiring, so I stayed.' Swiftly establishing a reputation as a design talent to watch, Theresa makes practical furniture, to be used every day, with soul: "I think I design in a quite 'German' way. I am very pragmatic, but I also think it's important that the objects that we surround ourselves with
