Sometimes inspiration is found in the unlikeliest of places. Take the two-legged Yeh Wall Table. Taiwanese designer Kenyon Yeh was walking to his studio when he spotted two cheerleaders practising balance exercises against a wall. "The guy had his back resting against the wall in a sitting position without a chair. The girl was standing on his thighs." And so the table was born, a functional design that can be used as a side-table for books, plants or a table lamp. Available in two sizes.

About the Designer

Kenyon Yeh was born in 1983, and graduated with a Masters in Product Design from Kingston University, London, in 2009. In 2010 Kenyon Yeh started his own design studio in London, producing his handmade UNIKEA furniture collection. Kenyon Yeh is currently based in Taipei, Taiwan, where he lives and produces his designs.

Yeh focuses on furniture, lighting, and product design. Past collaborations with international clients include SELETTI, MENU A/S, ESAILA, as well as others currently in progress. His works include space design collaboration with TOPMAN UK, and work with talented London designer Simon Hasan.
